

GAINESVILLE UPPER LANIER Water Trail

The Gainesville Upper Lanier Water Trail is a 14 mile section of Lake Lanier and is a continuation of the Upper Chattahoochee River Water Trail. Five lake parks within the City of Gainesville serve as the perfect launch, landing or stopover sites for avid or beginner paddlers. This paddle card provides information on the reverse side pertaining to each park site.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

- Swimming is not recommended as NO LIFEGUARDS are on duty at parks.
- Respect private property rights and park rules.
- Always wear a PFD (Personal Flotation Device).
- Travel with a buddy – or at least inform someone of your paddling plans.
- Carry food and water as necessary.
- Lake Lanier is very popular with motor boats especially on summer weekends. Stay close to the shoreline for safety.
